"I'm an ordinary man with an ordinary life". I walked into my house that looked suspicious like someone is inside or was inside. I run to my desk there's a note that has writing on it. The note says "Meet me at City hall be suspicious another note is coming". I was scared so I sprint to my bed and hop in and go to sleep. 11 hours later I check my desk there's another note it says "Hurry up all of the weapons and ammunition will be provided for you be here in 1 hour and a half". 1 hour and a half later " so what do you want with me wait are you the mayor and your with an old man" I said in a suspicious voice. " We need to train you for a series of monsters there will be wizards,demolitionist,arms dealers and guides,ok so suit up choose your weapons and ammunition so good luck". "Beep, beep,woah, woah, screech,"the elevator stopped. The mayor started talking to me on the expensive television he screams" There's a malfunction so there's ropes to the bottom of the elevator section thing,so good luck remember this isn't a vacation". 60 minutes later " wow this looks amazing, it looks like wonder land, I wonder were these people are". 2 hours later " Oh hey are you new or did that mayor from up top send you down here, so sorry my name is Jeff I'm the wizard that the mayor probably told you about me, here's a note that he sent me you should read it" the note says " there is going to be another guy coming down he's going to help you fight off the series of monsters so be nice" that was the note" Jeff screams because it's really windy. " hey you need something to help you, so here's some magical bullets, put them in your body for special powers, and now one of your arms are fire and one is ice and both of your hands can use electric to, so good luck" Jeff impressively said. 5 months later. "Roar, roar," the metallic monster roars like his lungs are going to burst if he even has lungs," whoa one of the beasts have came to fight me wahoo, here we go"" biz biz" as I shot my electricity the metallic monster swishes his tail hits my hand to stop my powerful electric arm. " boosh,boosh" then I shot my flaming powerful fire balls and fire, then the monster burns and burns

in till all of his corps were burnt. " oh that's disgusting his corps were fiercely burnt by my fire and fierce fire balls" I fiercely said in a fierce voice. " ahh ahh my ribs" Jeff screamed in a saw voice, " are you ok Jeff should I give you a freezing cold ice pack to fix your ribs" I said in a sorry voice.
